

D.N.J. LBR 9019-3. Compromise or Settlement of Controversy

A party seeking approval of a proposed compromise or settlement of a controversy, other than approval of an agreement under Bankruptcy Rule 4001(d), must file Local Form Notice of Proposed Compromise or Settlement of Controversy.

2015 Comment

This Rule is new. In addition to the motion required under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, it provides the procedure for a party seeking approval of a proposed compromise or settlement of controversy to supply information to the court to satisfy the clerk's responsibility to send notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(3).

Local Bankruptcy Rule 6004-1 addresses the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(2) for a motion to sell property.
