

D.N.J. LBR 9072-1 ORDERS - PROPOSED

- (a) Any order or judgment must be a separate document. The title of an order or judgment shall identify the nature of the relief granted.
- (b) The Court may approve standard forms of order and judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9021. When a decision by the Court is identical to that provided in any such standard form of order or judgment, and includes no additional relief or ruling, the clerk shall prepare, sign and enter an order or judgment on the appropriate form as directed by the Court. Where use of a standard form of order or judgment is required under this subdivision, there shall be no substitution for, or modification or supplementation of such form without the express consent of the Court.
- (c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), if the ruling on a motion or application differs from that reflected in any proposed orders which have been submitted, the prevailing party or applicant shall file and serve a revised form of order within 7 days of the Court's decision. If the prevailing party or applicant fails to do so, any other party may file and serve such form of order.
- (d) If all parties consent to the form of an order submitted under subdivision (c), the correspondence transmitting such order shall so state in bold face or upper case type, and such order shall be signed and entered in the discretion of the court. In all other cases under subdivision (c), all parties served with such order shall have 7 days to file and serve an objection and alternative form of order. A hearing may be conducted on the objection in the Court's discretion.
- (e) Any proposed order seeking relief from the automatic stay, the use, sale or lease of property or the assumption, rejection or assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases shall not include a waiver of the 14 day stay provisions provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), or 6006(d) unless cause for relief from the stay is specifically plead in the moving papers. The caption of the proposed order must state the order waives the 10 day stay provisions contained in the applicable Federal Rule.

1997 Comment: Formerly Local Rule 4.

2001 Comment: This Rule amendment substitutes the phrase "shall be signed and entered in the discretion of the court" for the phrase "shall be signed and entered forthwith."

2009 Comment: Subsection (e) is amended to eliminate reference to the Interim Rule 6004(h) by its adoption into the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure as of December 1, 2008.

Dec., 2009 Comment This Rule is amended to conform with the March 26, 2009, Supreme Court approval of changes to Bankruptcy Rule 9006 which addresses the method by which time is calculated. On May 7, 2009, the Statutory Time Period Technical Amendments Act of 2009 was enacted (Pub. L. No. 111-06). The law adjusts the time period in 28 statutes, including nine sections of the Bankruptcy Code, which are impacted by the federal rule changes. Both the statutory and rules changes take effect on the same day, December 1, 2009. Deadlines of less than 30 days have been changed to multiples of seven days so that the expiration of the deadline ordinarily would occur on a weekday. Under the revised rules: 5 day deadlines become 7 days; 10 and 15 day deadlines become 14 days; 20 day deadlines become 21 days; and 25 day deadlines become 28 days. Effective, December 1, 2009 conforming amendments to the Court's Local Rules, including the one set forth herein, have been approved by the Board of Bankruptcy Judges. Additional information concerning time computation amendments to the national rules, local rules, general orders and forms may be accessed at www.uscourts.gov/rules and www.njb.uscourts.gov.
